TROOPER ALEX WICK'S OWN SEARCH, "SNIPE SEASON ALASKA"

The zone was in the parentheses.

"ADF&G sets the Wilson's Snipe hunting season in Alaska generally from September 1st through December 16th (or matching general migratory bird/waterfowl windows depending on the specific zone...)"

AS QUOTED IN HIS AFFIDAVIT. HER OWN SEARCH IS RECORDED ONLY AS SEPTEMBER 1ST.

ADF&G MIGRATORY BIRD HUNTING ZONES

Five zones. Two opening days.

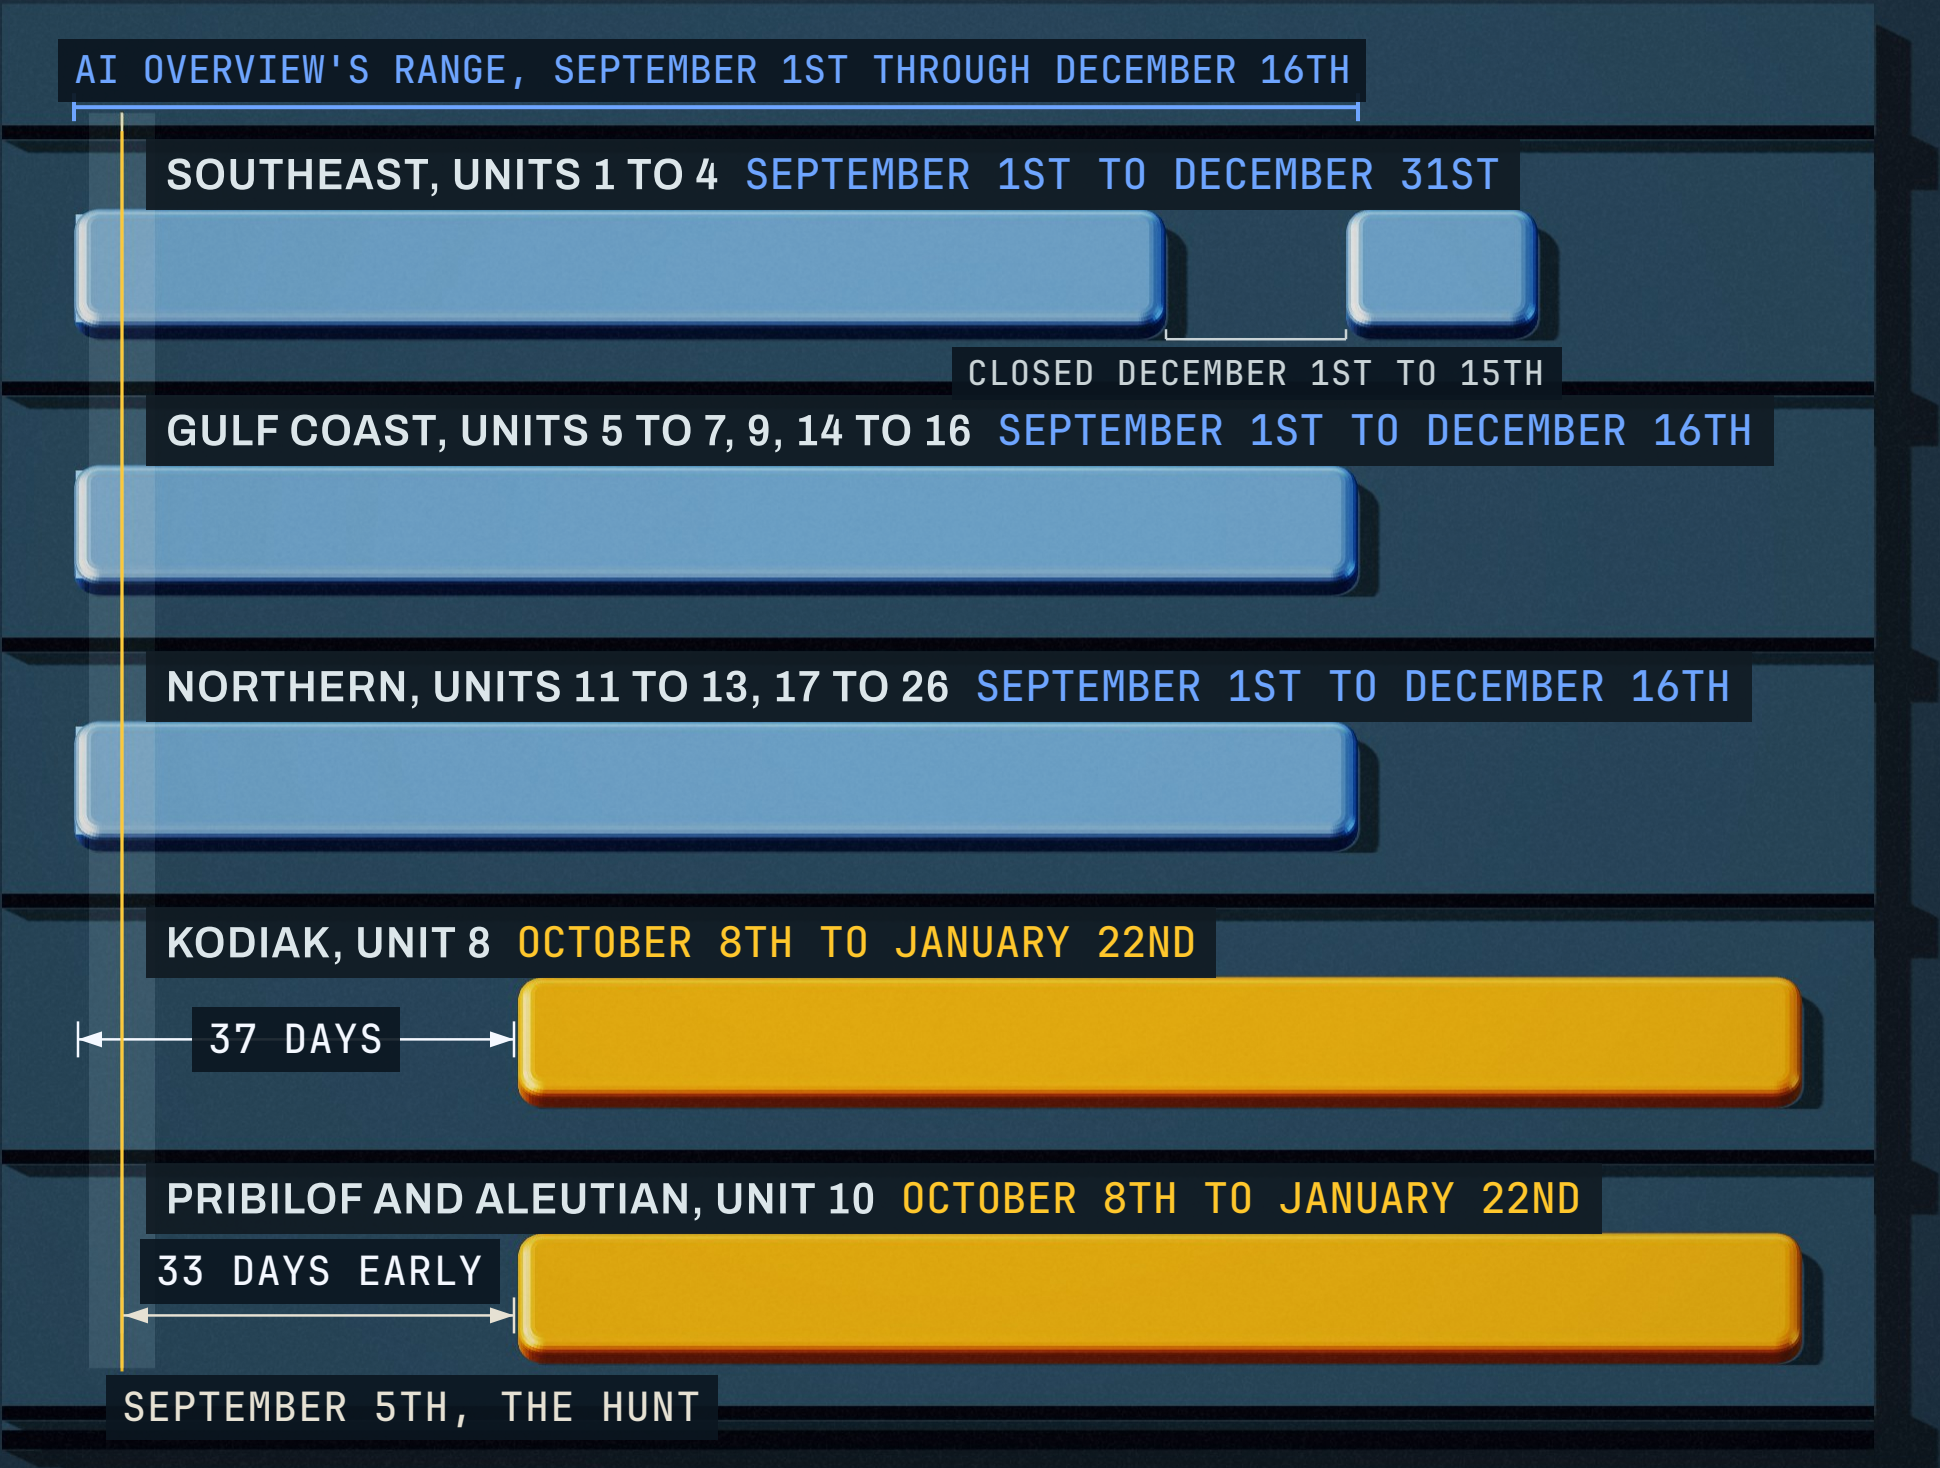

Southeast, Gulf Coast and Northern open September 1st. Kodiak and the Pribilof and Aleutian zone open October 8th. Unimak Island goes with the Gulf Coast.

No contest. A $150 fine.

The charge was a Class A misdemeanor. She pleaded no contest and was fined $150, the Alaska Beacon reported.

"The potential consequences for self-turning in versus being caught can be pretty dramatic."

AUSTIN MCDANIEL, ALASKA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY

"I expect we'll see more of this type of thing in the future."

Spokesman Austin McDaniel says it's the first time he thinks the department has seen AI cited, and it doesn't track these cases. Google's own help page says AI Overviews "can and will make mistakes."

WILSON'S SNIPE

Read the zone before the date.

DPS says the one source of truth for hunts is ADF&G's regulations and emergency orders.
