

SEAT D • HOW 123 WAS BUILT

Ramirez won Election Day. Early voting carried Howell.

Howell agreed with the idea of a data center moratorium. Election Day ballots went to Ramirez 6,251 to 5,612. Early ballots went to Howell 1,618 to 856. Seat H ran the same way, Leaders ahead on Election Day and Crass ahead early.

EARLY VOTING • HOWELL +762

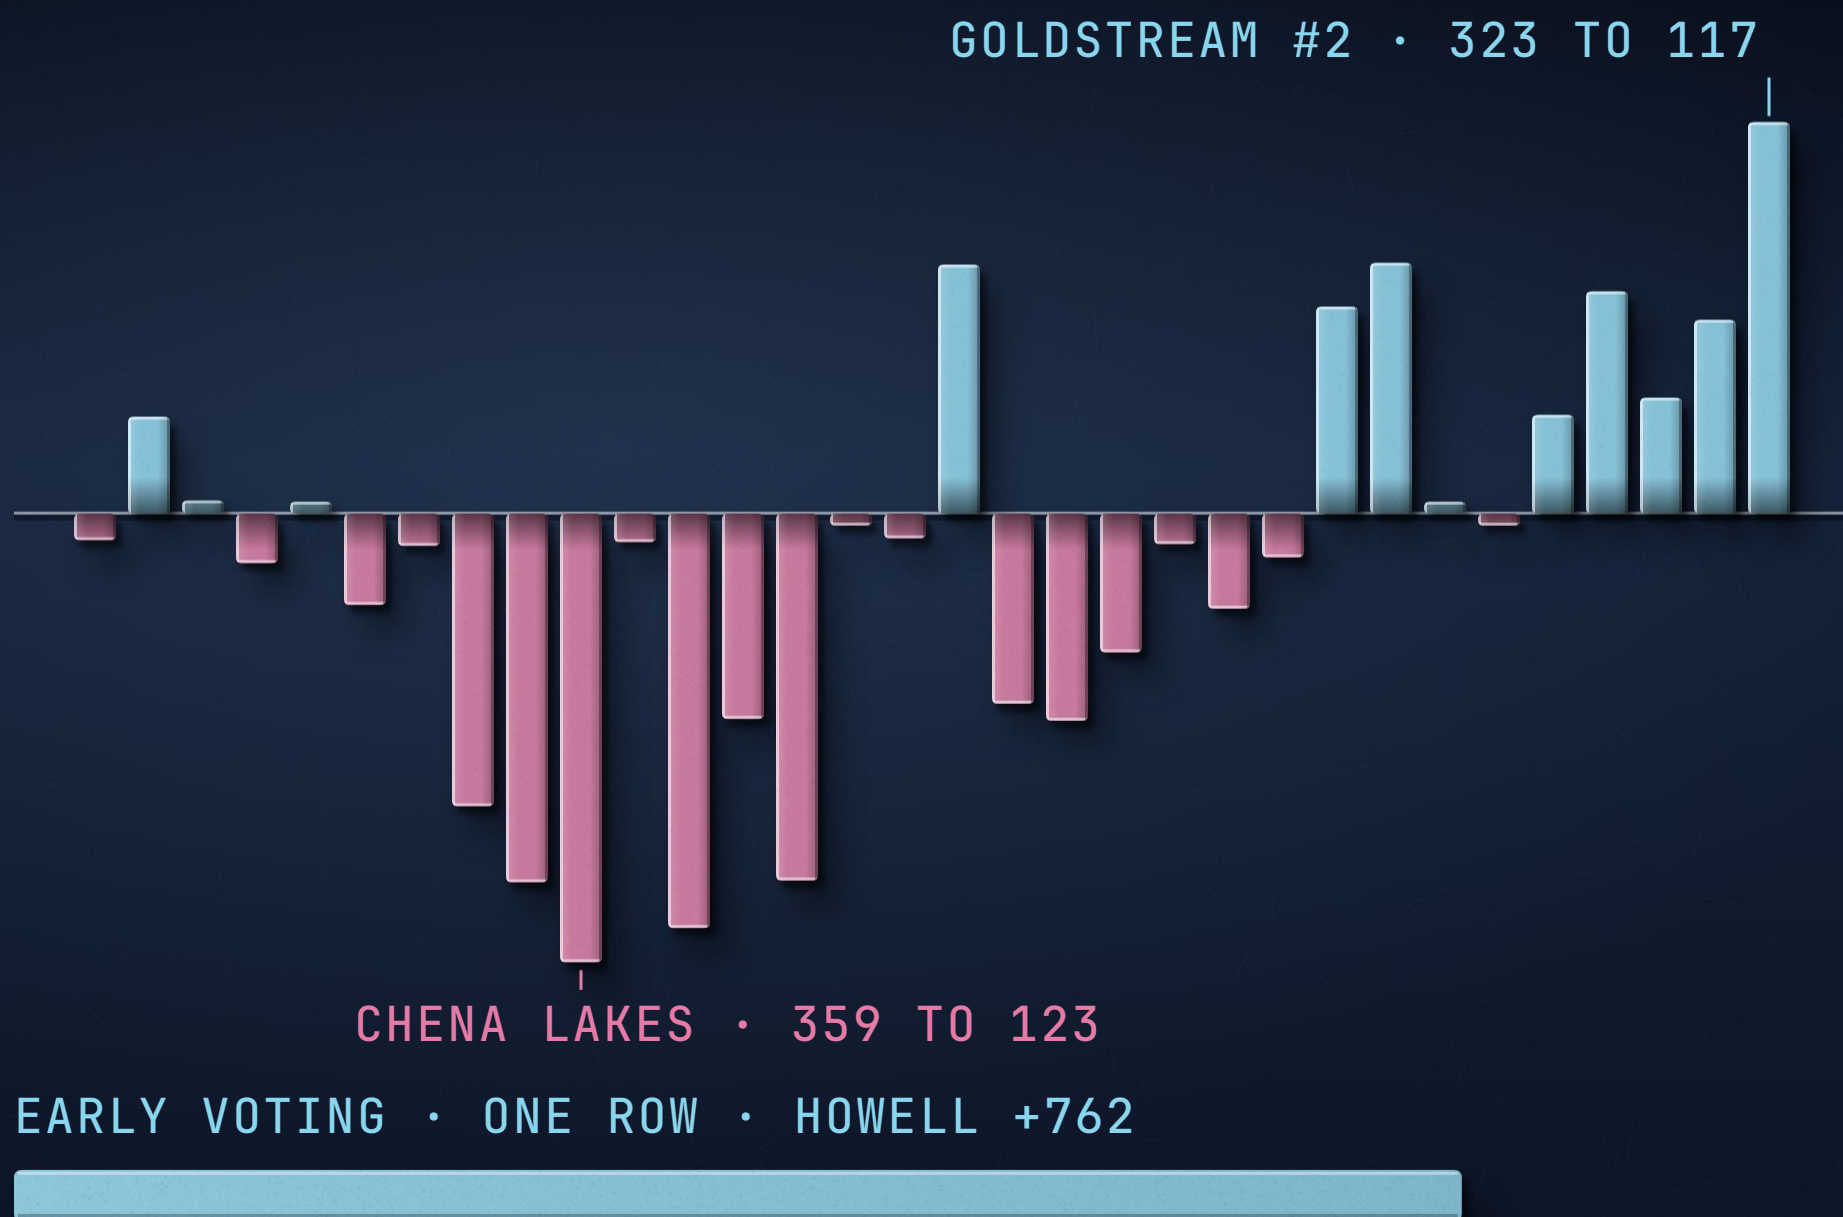

LEAD • HOWELL +123

SEAT D • ELECTION DAY • 32 PRECINCTS

Ramirez carried 20 precincts.
Howell carried 12.

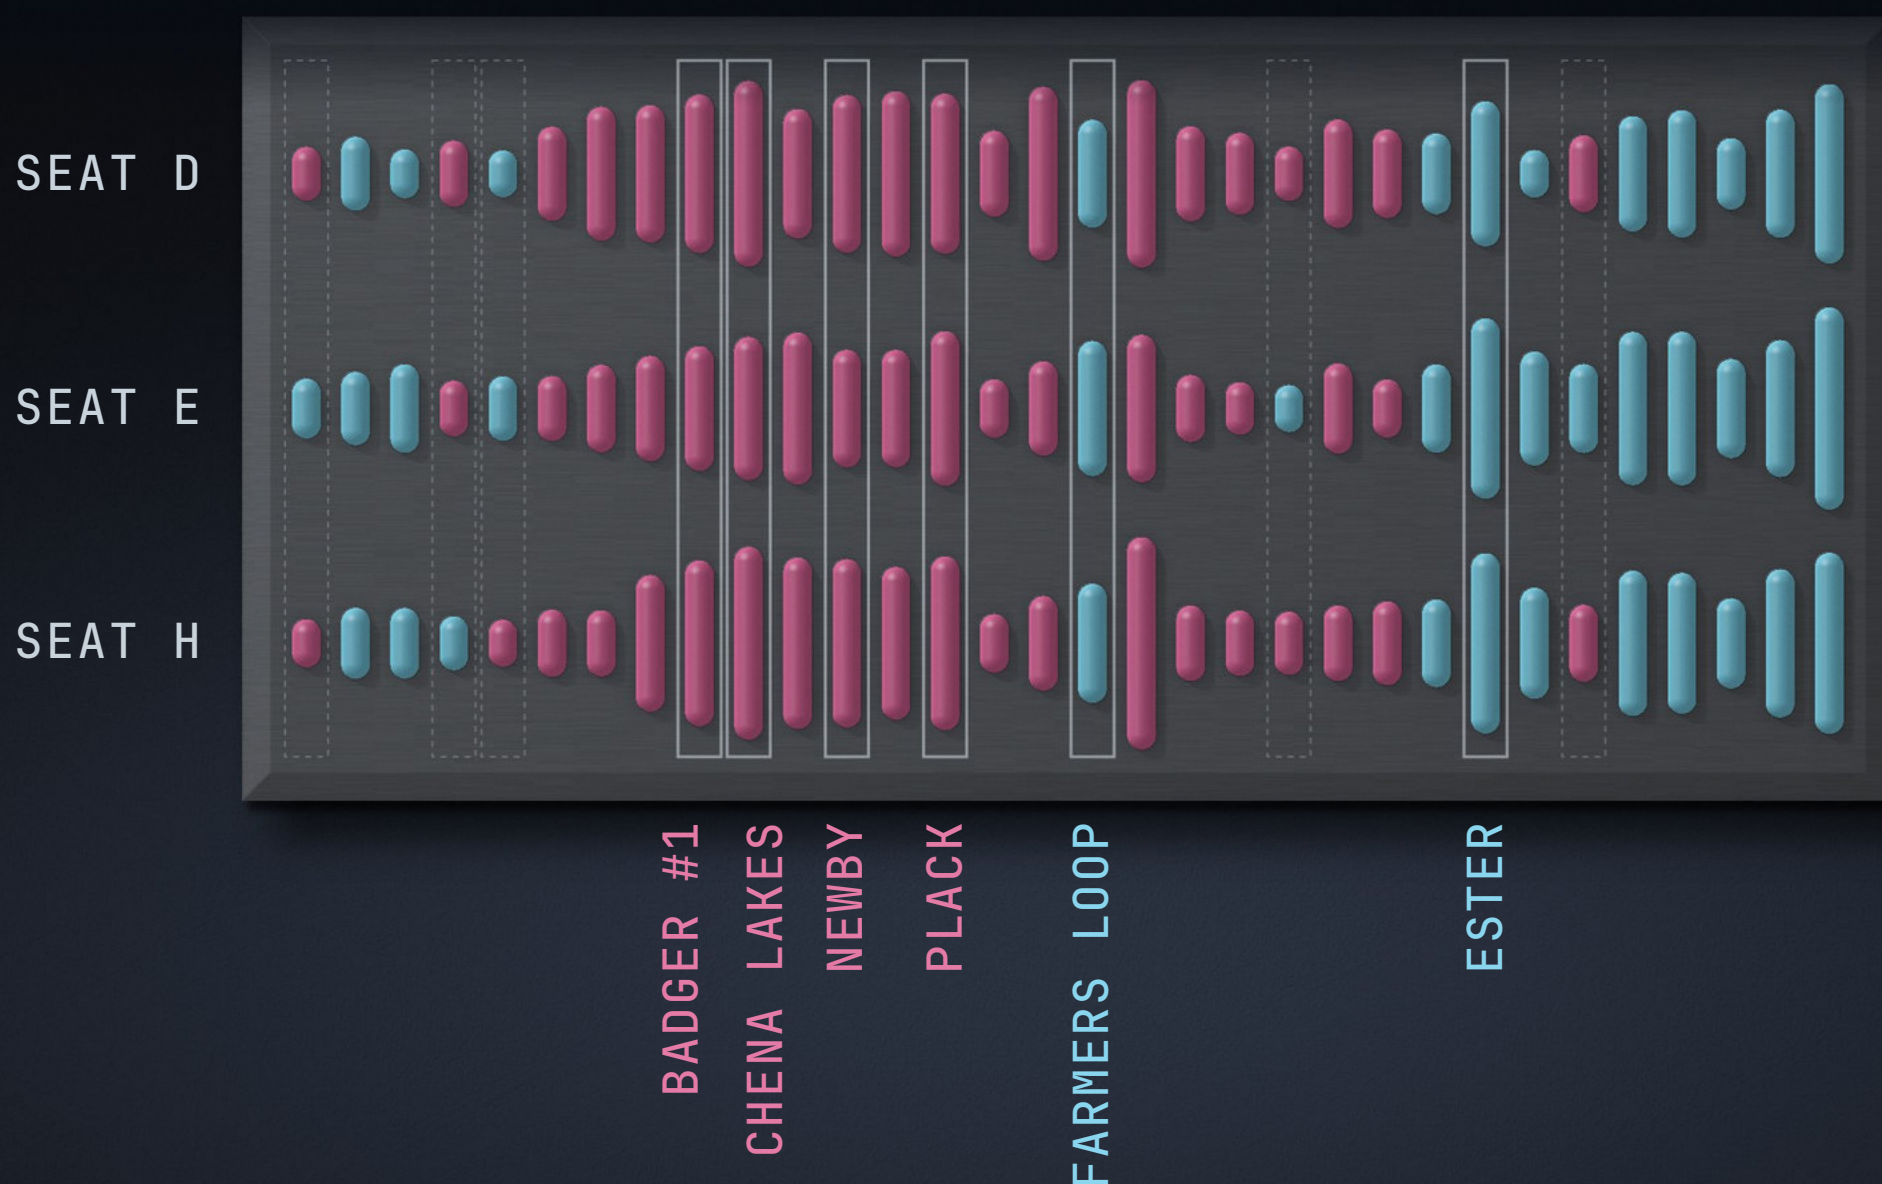

Ramirez's widest was Chena Lakes, 359 to 123. Howell's was Goldstream #2, 323 to 117. The 2,603 early ballots aren't split by precinct. They sit in one row of the clerk's report.

ELECTION DAY • THREE SEATS

27 of 32 precincts went the same way in every seat.

In 11, Election Day chose Howell, LaJiness and Crass. In 16, it chose Ramirez, Shupe and Leaders.

EIELSON PRECINCT • 34-235

24 Election Day ballots from 2,103 registered voters.

The Pentagon wants up to a dozen military data centers near Anchorage, Healy and Fairbanks. The moratorium the Assembly asked for names state-owned or municipal land. Fort Wainwright's precinct cast 59 of 3,256 on Election Day.

RELIEF DRAWN FROM ELEVATION, ONE STROKE PER SLOPE CELL

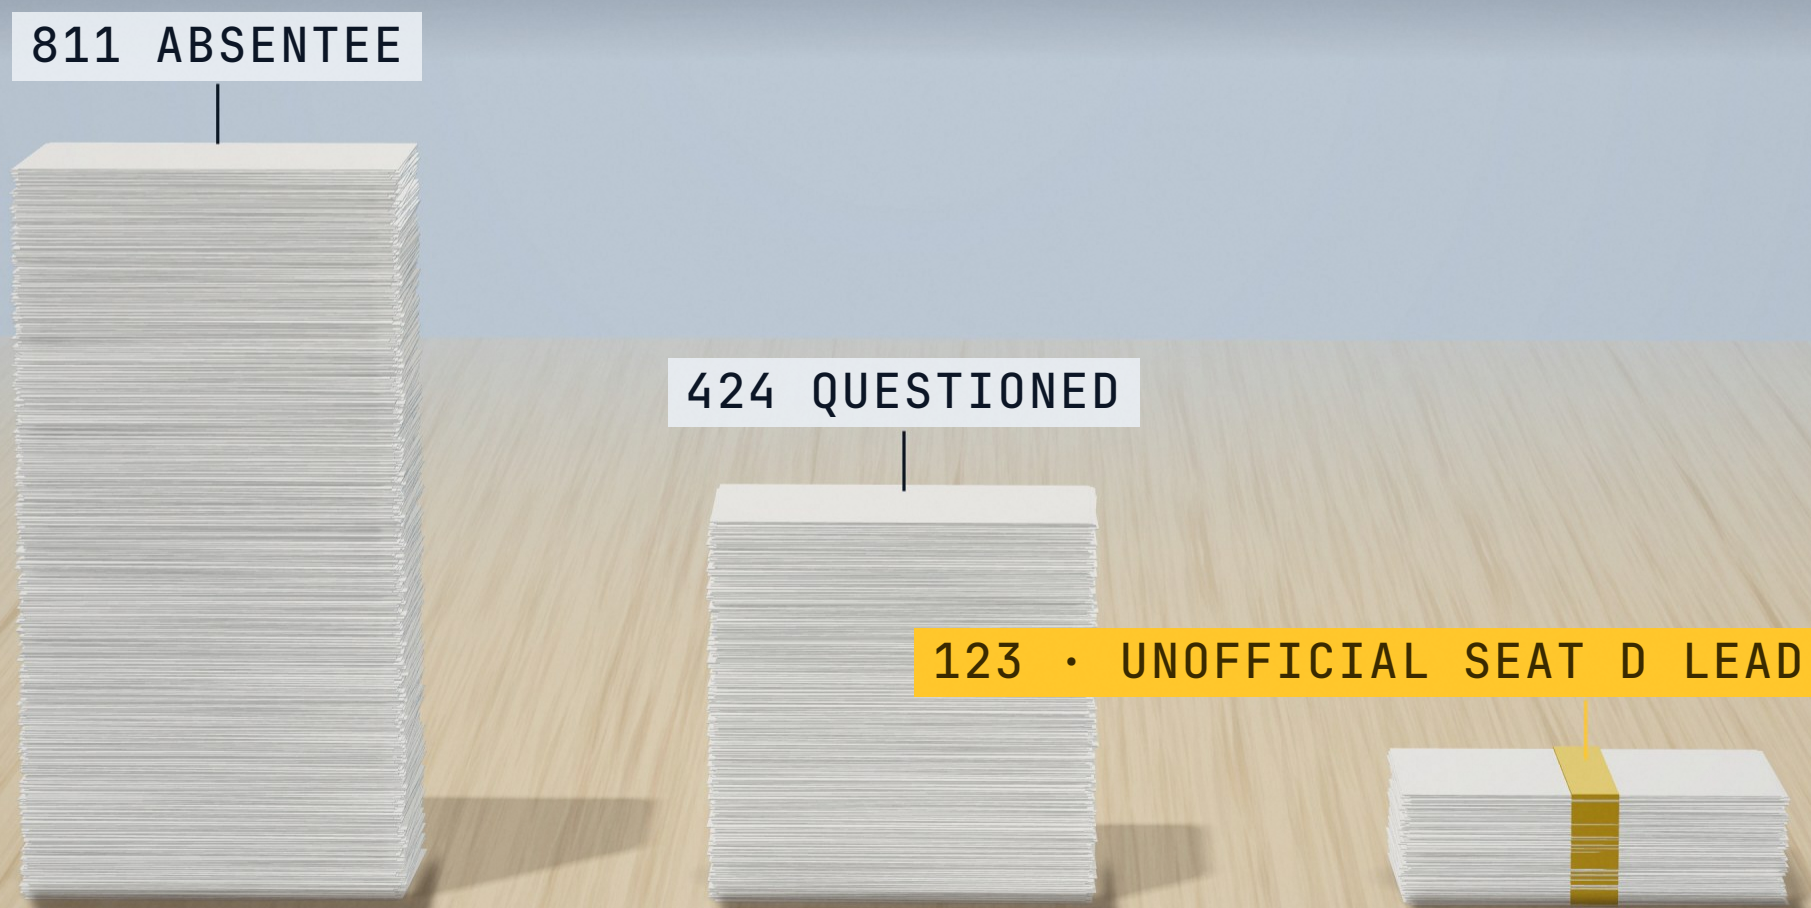

The count so far

64°50' N 147°43' W

OCTOBER 13TH • 2 P.M.

The rest is counted on October 13th.

811 absentee and 424 questioned ballots. Only qualified ballots count, and not every one marks Seat D. Certification is scheduled for October 22nd.

Save the table.
October 13th's count
is the one to check.

