One draft. Two kinds of answer.

RISERS ARE EQUAL. ONLY DEPTH IS A QUANTITY.

THIS DOCUMENT DOESN'T MENTION AI.

02 / 09

NEW SINCE JULY, AR 6161.5 IS AUGUST 3RD NEW BUSINESS.

The AI draft draws no grade line.

The district calls this a new administrative regulation brought forward in relation to the inclusion of AI. Two competing drafts were posted. The committee postponed it on July 6th.

"Inappropriate and/or misuse of AI tools will be considered a violation of academic honesty"

VERSION 2 VANBUSKIRK

THE POSTED DRAFTS APPEAR TO DRAW NO GRADE LINE.

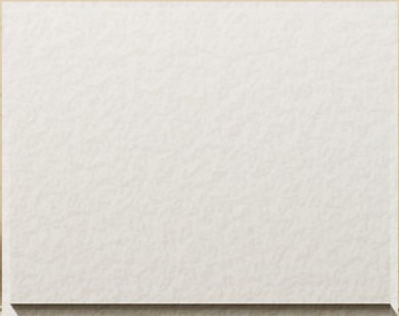

They disagree about the line, not the verb.

"I think it's really important that we let teachers say, 'This is acceptable in this situation,' 'It's not acceptable in this situation.'"

MICA VANBUSKIRK, BOARD MEMBER, TO KBBI

"If you are putting such strict parameters, it may really limit where we're going to be continuously changing the language."

KARI DENDURENT, ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT, TO KBBI

BOTH DRAFTS ALREADY SHARE A VERB. AR 5131.9, "not replace the thinking". BP 6161.5, "support, not replace".

ON JULY 6TH THE BOARD ASKED FOR TRAINING ON AI.

The state framework is a benchmark, not a floor.

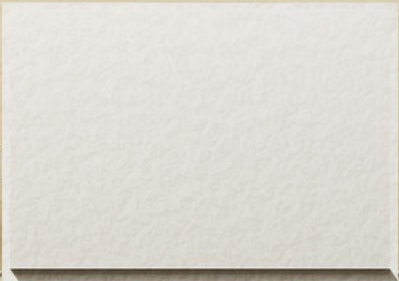

Alaska's Strategic Framework, Artificial Intelligence for K-12, sets seven guiding principles. It is the document the district group compared its own material against last fall. Nothing on the record makes it binding.

"AI must augment human capabilities, critical thinking, and creativity, never replacing human judgment"

- 1 HUMAN-CENTERED
- 2 FAIR ACCESS
- 3 TRANSPARENCY
- 4 OVERSIGHT
- 5 SECURITY
- 6 ETHICAL USE
- 7 CULTURAL RESPONSIVENESS
