

PALMER • OCTOBER 4TH • CANDIDATE FORUM

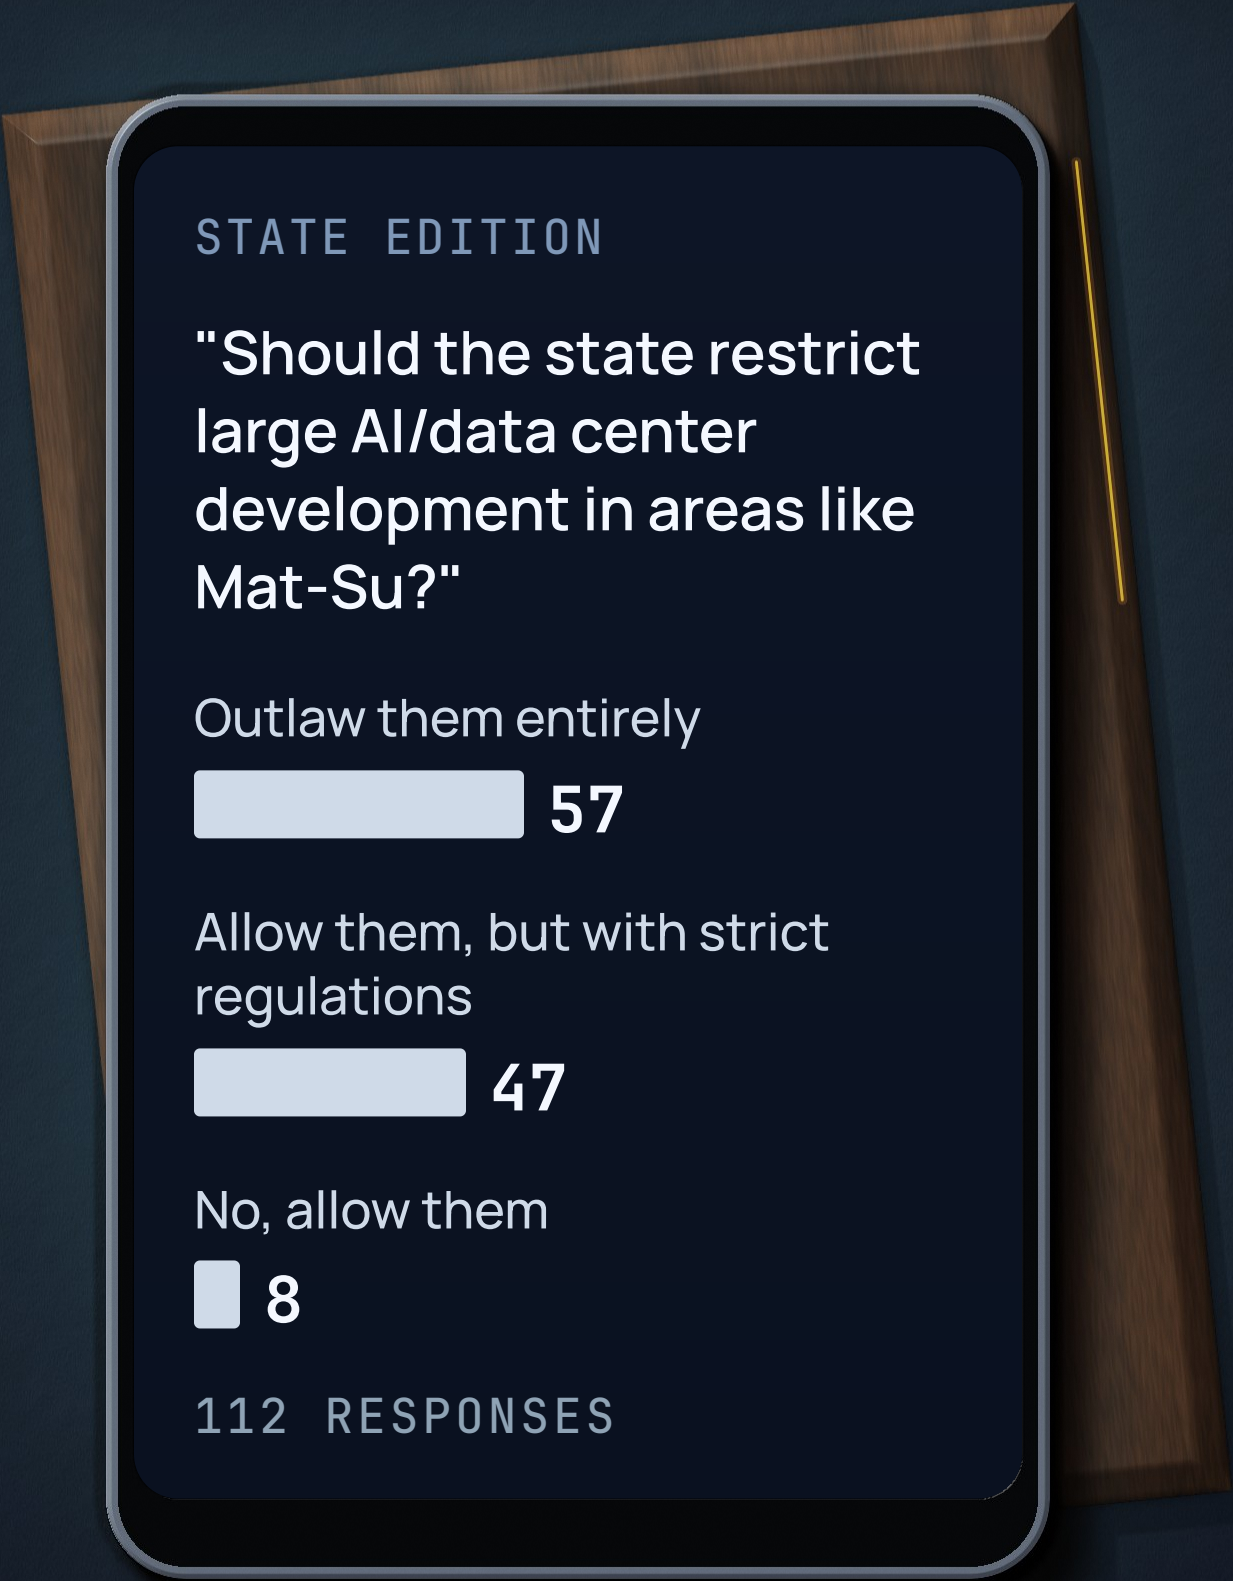

57 of 112 said outlaw large AI data centers in Mat-Su.

Three other rooms decide.

THE QUESTION, AS ASKED • 112 ANSWERS

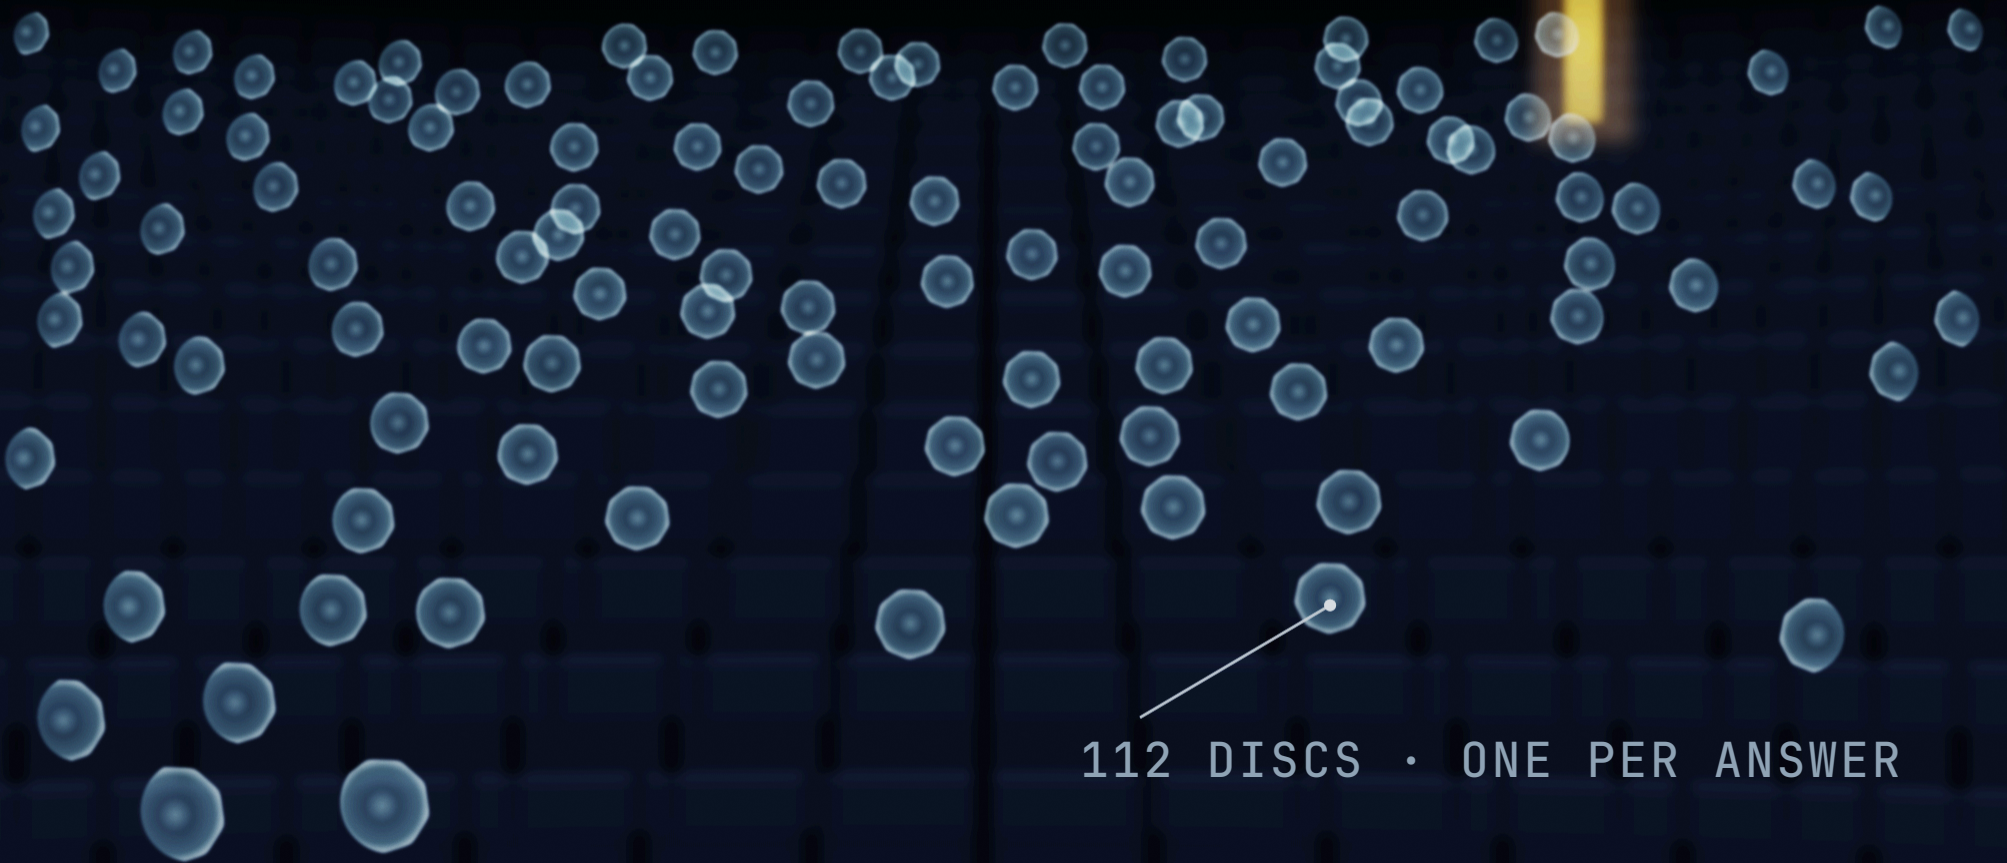

57 outlaw. 47 regulate.
8 allow.

The Mat-Su Sentinel asked it live. The tally built on screen as phones answered.

REVERSE ANGLE • GLENN MASSEY THEATER

A room, not a poll of Mat-Su.

112 DISCS • ONE PER ANSWER

About 200 came. 112 answered, and each could see the tally grow. 22 legislative candidates were there too.

"THE STATE," ON MAT-SU LAND

The question said "the state." Here, that's three rooms.

DNR holds land near Houston. The University of Alaska leased land at Port MacKenzie. A data center bill stopped in the Legislature.

About 19,950 acres. Comments closed September 14th.

A preliminary decision would convey it to AIDEA, whose plan lists data centers among possible uses. AIDEA says none is proposed. As of late September, there is no final decision.
